North West Recycling recognises that its business operations and processes may have an impact on social, economic and environmental issues outside of the workplace.

Objective

NWR seeks to sustain a business that is successful and respected in its ethical standing by our stakeholders. These include customers, clients, regulators, suppliers and the community. We embrace the role our business plays on a day to day basis in contributing to a better society.

Policy

NWR are aware that the running of our business will, in many ways affect our place of work, the community and the wider environment in which we operate. We believe that the way we run our business can and should make a positive difference in these areas and we aim to ensure that continued efforts are made to achieve that.

Our corporate social responsibilities are identifiable in the following areas.

Environment

With regards to business' impact upon the environment, we are committed, amongst other initiatives to:

- Maximising waste to recycling.
- Minimising waste sent to landfill.
- Reducing the amount of waste produced by the business
- Efficient printing.
- Ensuring that water / electricity is used responsibly by our staff.
- Reducing our carbon footprint.

Ethical Trading Policy

NWR aim to trade ethically by:

- Adhering to Government recognized trading sanctions.
- Not trading with those countries which we believe are violators of human rights.
- Refusing to work with any client, which we have reason to consider exploit humans, animals or the environment unfairly.

Education

We recognize the key importance of training and education and that supporting individuals during this process is key to advancement. We actively encourage our employees to take up training courses, often funded by ourselves.

Employee Involvement

We keep our staff fully informed of our policies and procedures and we actively encourage them to share their ideas with us. We maintain an open and honest approach to all our communications.

Equal opportunities

NWR is committed to providing an environment of equal opportunities for all members of our workforce. No account of any of the protected characteristics set out in the Equality Act 2010 shall be taken to detrimental effect in any decision involving recruitment, promotion, provision of facilities etc.

Charitable / Community Work

NWR is keen to support and become involved in community initiatives and charitable work. We do this in the form of donations and sponsorship, which maybe suggested by our staff. Every suggestion is given full consideration.
